DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections- 35 U.S.C §101

1. Corrections to claims rejected under 35 U.S.C §101 have been acknowledged and rejections have been withdrawn.

Claim Rejections- 35 U.S.C §112

2. Corrections to claims rejected under 35 U.S.C §112, second paragraph have been acknowledged and rejections have been withdrawn.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

3. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.
4. Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Kenneth Fafrak on June 27, 2007. The application has been amended as follows: Claims 13-21 are cancelled.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

5. Claims 1-12, 22-42, and 44-45 are allowed.

6. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: While Kishkovich et al. (U.S. Pub 2003/0068834) discusses contamination on optical surfaces, it does not, taken either alone or in combination with the prior art of record disclose modeling the effect of contaminants on optical surfaces specifically including:

(claim 1) "...convolving the absorbance spectrum of the aggregate molecular contaminant film with an instrument function of the optical system to obtain an estimated degradation in performance of the optical system",

(claim 22) "...convolving the absorbance spectrum of the aggregate molecular contaminant film with an instrument function of the optical system to obtain an estimated degradation in performance of the optical system; and output the estimated degradation in performance of the optical system",

(claim 42) "...using the estimated absorbance spectrum to estimate an aggregate contaminant film thickness produced from at least one soil, wherein the at least one soil is outgassed from the at least one compound", in combination with the remaining elements and features of the claimed invention. It is for these reasons that the applicant's invention defines over the prior art of record

7. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
